A C H I E V E M E N T FULLER USE OF BALLOT

Increased the number of Negro voters from 57 voters in 1928 to 782 voters in 1941

JAN

Fought for and obtained the right to participate in primary elections in Fairfax County for first time in August 5, 1930.

Influenced the establishment of voters clubs in the communities of Woodlawn, Va., Gumsprings, Va., Falls Church, and Vienna.

Endorsed and supported the candidacy of a new superintendent of schools who possessed a more liberal attitude toward Negro education.

Wrote letters to our Congressmen protesting the proposal to change the administrative control of Freedmen's Hospital from a Federal Hospital under the U.S. Department of the Interior to an exclusive municipal hospital under the sole charge of the D.C. Board of Public Welfare. Such control would be detrimental to our welfare. The proposal was defeated.

Wrote letters to our Congressmen asking them to support the Anti-Lynching Bill.

Instrumental in defeating Fairfax County School Bond issue November, 1935, because of unjust allotment of funds to Negro schools.

Aided in passing new Bond Issue 1937 in which Negroes were more fairly treated.

Established a Colored Women's Voters Club in Falls Church, Virginia, 1940.
