To be SOLD,

At the PRINTING-OFFICE,

COMMON PRAYER BOOKS, as revised by the Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church.—A SERMON preached at Christ Church in Philadelphia, at the opening of the Convention on the 21st of June, 1786, by the Rev. William White, D. D.—They may likewise be had at the store of Mr. Benjamin Day, merchant in Fredericksburg.

Also, a few Copies of the HISTORY of a SESSION of the GENERAL ASSEMBLY of the STATE of MARYLAND, held at the CITY of ANNAPOLIS, commenced in November, 1785.

FOR SALE,

A FEW bushels of excellent CLOVER SEED, at the store of JOSIAH WATSON and CO.

Alexandria, September 28, 1786.

TEN POUNDS REWARD,

RAN away a few days ago from the Subscribers living in Fairfax County, Virginia, viz. DICK a very lusty well made Mulatto fellow, about 25 years of age, has bushy hair or wool, which he generally combs back, large teeth and eyes, a grum down look when spoken to, is a subtle artful fellow, well acquainted both with Virginia and Maryland, beats a drum pretty well, and formerly a waiting-man; He took with him a light lead coloured country cloth coat, with white metal buttons, a short green ditto, a white cloth waistcoat, a red ditto faced with black velvet, a round hat half worn, and common shoes and stockings. He ran away some time ago, when he worked on board a bay craft by the name of Thomas Webster.—WATT a stout Negro fellow, remarkably black, about 35 years of age, has lost some of his foreteeth, which in some measure affects his voice, has had cross paths lately shaved on his head, to conceal which he will probably shave or cut close the rest of his hair. He is an artful fellow, has a down look, and seems confused when examined: He took with him a brown cloth coat, a pair of black breeches, and a variety of clothes not known. They will perhaps change their names and pass for freemen; and it is probable they may have a forged pass.—They will probably make for the Eastern-Shore, or for the State of Delaware or Pennsylvania. The above reward, or five pounds, for either of them will be paid for delivering them to the subscribers, or for securing them in any goal and giving us notice, so that we get them again, and if brought home all reasonable charges paid.

GEORGE MASON,

GEORGE MASON, jun.

N. B. All Captains or Skippers of vessels and others are hereby forewarned, at their peril, from taking them on board, or employing them.

September 30, 1786.

ONE GUINEA REWARD.

STRAYED from the commons of this place, about three weeks since, a dark sorrel horse, nearly fourteen and a half hands high, with a star in his forehead, several of his feet white, and ears naturally. Whoever will deliver said horse to the subscriber, shall receive the above reward, with reasonable charges.

DANIEL ROBERDEAU,

Alexandria, September 18, 1786.
